

Not a Second to Waste

Submitted by Doug Chabot on Thu, 03/17/2016 - 09:12

By: Doug Chabot

Over the last ten years the US has averaged 27 avalanche fatalities a year. This season is on track to easily meet that. This January there were 11 fatalities in the west, one of the highest Januarys on record. Statistically, February is no better so brace yourself for more tragedy. Here in southwest Montana there have been two avalanche fatalities so far (as of February 1) with an additional 32 close calls reported.

CARVE 02.15.16.pdf

Publication

Carve

Date of Publication

Friday 2/12/16