

A skier noted significant cracking above 9,500 feet on Mt. Republic yesterday. This hard slab of windblown snow cracked 30+ feet on a <30 degree slope. Cracking is Bull's-eye data that the snow is unstable. Photo: Beau Fredlund

Advisory Region
Cooke City

Forecast link: GNFAC Avalanche Forecast for Wed Dec 7, 2011
Cooke City, 2011-12-07